Takeda Consumer Healthcare Becomes Alinamin Pharmaceutical

On April 1, 2021, Takeda Consumer Healthcare changed its name to Alinamin Pharmaceutical.

This name change is affirmation of our future-oriented approach and commitment to taking on new challenges. Our dedication to helping all our customers lead healthy and rewarding lives remains the same, and all established production processes, manufacturing centers, and manufacturing technicians for all products remain unchanged.

We thank you for your ongoing support as we continue to deliver excellent products and reliable information.

Corporate Symbol

Our new corporate symbol expresses two significant concepts: our future-focused development and the maintenance of our existing principles.

Future-focused development : a renewed future-oriented approach and spirit to take on challenges.

Maintaining existing principles: a steadfast commitment to our convictions (Integrity, Fairness, Honesty and Perseverance) and to our customers.

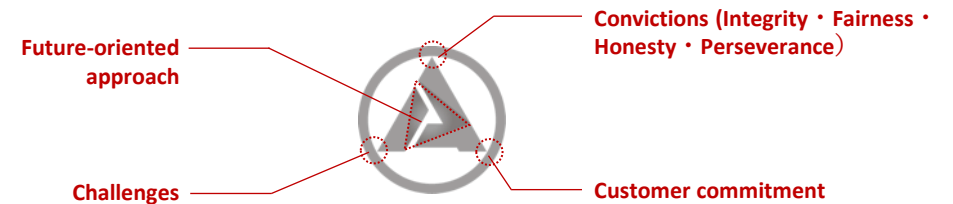

The three points of the triangle represent our challenges, convictions, and customer commitment. The triangle in the center of the Alinamin Pharmaceutical 'A' represents our future-oriented approach.

The new corporate symbol embodies the promise from our company to all stakeholders, beginning with our customers.

Overall Concept

- Symbolizes the 'A' of Alinamin Pharmaceutical
- Embodies the promise we make to our stakeholders
- The white pathway represents our commitment to mutual trust
